

Disclaimer & Disclosure Policy

The Jo Garrison Hair & Makeup Artistry website and other social media accounts are written by Jo Garrison. I am a licensed cosmetologist who wants to share my knowledge of beauty products with you. The opinions expressed here are mine and not those of any advertiser, affiliate, company, or group.

MY REVIEWS

The views and opinions expressed on all forms of my social media are purely my own. If I claim or appear to be an expert on a certain topic or product, I am expressing my own opinion which comes from my personal experience with the company or product itself. I do my best to provide honest and accurate information, but please be aware that I am not a doctor, dermatologist, or esthetician. Please be aware that if a product works for me, it may not work for you, as I cannot predict how something will react with you. Please do not consider my reviews and opinions to be substitutes for the sound advice of a medical professional.

ADVERTISING

Posts paid for by a brand are always marked as SPONSORED in the title. A sponsorship means that a brand has a) paid me for my time, effort and coverage and b) provided me with a number of key messages that they would like to convey to my audience. I only agree to a sponsorship if I am happy with the key messaging and feel it's both truthful and relevant to my readers and viewers.

I feel that this is the clearest and most straightforward way to tell you – before you read content – whether there has been any brand involvement.

Posts marked as COLLABS are companies I have most likely reached out to and for free product have offered to do a post review about their said products. In return they also post about me on their social platforms.

Posts marked as PR GIFTS are products sent to me by companies who sought me out and want an honest review and exposure about their products on my social platforms.

AFFILIATE LINKS

Affiliate links are links that provide me with a small commission if you make a purchase after clicking. (NO added cost to you) Again, it doesn't affect the way I write or how I present my content.

If you have any further questions on the way that I disclose please do contact me via the contact page and I'll be happy to answer and to take on board your suggestions.

COPYRIGHT AND CONTENT USE

I retain full copyright use to the material on all my social platforms. All material found on my sites are for personal use only. What does this mean exactly? It means that you are more than welcome to share my pictures, materials, reviews, and blog posts with the world for non-commercial use, as long as you do not edit, change, or add anything to it. If you do decide to share my content, you must link back to Jo Garrison HMUA. All photos featured on Jo Garrison HMUA are mine, unless credited otherwise. If you find that I have used your photos without the proper credit, please let me know and I will change or remove the offending item.
